Rocci ladies' brunch with Amor Vittone

Ruimsig—Café D'Art at Alice Art Gallery was the place to be on 19 February when several women joined Lady Rocci for their High Tea.

Amor Vittone was the speaker at this event and she shared with the special Lady Rocci members, her struggle and how she survived it. She spoke about staying with her husband throughout the rough media publicity and she taught the women how to stand strong through difficult times with the help of God. The Lady Rocci members then had a chance to enjoy their breakfasts and socialise with their fellow members.

Mix business and pleasure with Rocci

Weltevreden Park — The Roodepoort Chamber of Commerce and Industry (Rocci), held their weekly networking session on 19 February.

The event was held at the Mugg & Bean in Town Square shopping centre, and was very well attended by business people from a wide variety of industries.

From lawyers and labour relations specialists to fire-safety suppliers, car dealerships and even debt counsellors were there, mixing business with pleasure.

These networking sessions are aimed at bringing local business people and businesses together.

This is done in a relaxed, almost social environment, in order to introduce their businesses, build up contacts and meet prospective new clients.

"We try to limit these events to 20 people at a time in order to preserve the relaxed atmosphere and also due to time constraints, but the demand is so great that we will have to increase it to 30 or 35 people," said Sakkie Stolz, vice-president of Rocci.

The owner of Mugg & Bean Town Square Leanne McNaught, went all out, spoiling the assembled business people with delicious muffins, and attending to the table personally, with the help of a few waiters.

Rocci increased these networking sessions from every second week to a weekly basis, due to high demand.

The networking sessions are held at different venues every week.

• Details: Call Rocci on 086 111 3304 or email them at rocci@rocci.org.

Leanne McNaught, owner of Mugg & Bean Town Square and Sakkie Stolz, vice-president of Rocci were pleased with the turnout last week.

Mary Schaerer from Labour Net presented their businesses to the other businessmen who attended the Rocci networking breakfast.
